will not defend him, because in our opinion he needs no defense. The best proof that he does not lies in his nomination by his party for a second gubernatorial term. The Democracy of the State, in the late convention, unanimously expressed their confidence in him, based upon his administration of an office that carries with it responsibilities and cares at this time especially weighty and burdensome. Had he failed in any particular; had he faltered or weskened in his work, he would have been set aside and condemned. The most scrutinizing examination of his official record failed to discover a flaw of any magnitude, and both presses and people indorsed him as every way worthy porting him, and all this while he has the nomination of the party. and the success of which we believe vember.

Washington, P. C., October 4, 1876.

Hoping to secure unity, harmony and triumphant success for the Republican party in the Tenth Congressional District, I gratisfully decline the nomination for C.ngress late so flatteringly and kindly tendered me by the Republicans of the district. Please notify our friends so that another nomination may be made. Trusting that a glorious success swalls our party everywhere. I am yours The Cincinnati Enquirer will publish to-morrow a special from New York giving con-clusive evidence of the connection of Gover-nor Hayes with the American Alilance be-fore the time when that order tendered him its nomination for the Presidency. The su-tuenticity of the letter, which is published, cannot be questioned. The following is the text of the letter: awaits our party everywhere, I am yours truly, BARBOUR LEWIS,

The Hou, Barbour Lewis having declined the nomination tendered him by the Republicans of the Tenth Congressional District, the Delegates to the late Republican Convention, held in said district, are hereby called upon to reassemble in convention, at ZiON HALL, in the city at Memphis, on 11. " Columbus, Onto, June 29, 1876.

The dispatch to the Enquirer further

It is signed by Mr. Hayes, and a letter-press capy is now in his letter book at Columbus. It was a few days before his nomination at Philiadelphia, and his acceptance of the membership is undoubtedly the reason for his nomination by the Alliance. Governor the state of the property of of t may swill not dare to deny signing and send-ing this letter, as the original can be produced and will be published in the same manner as the Loe letter.

from this new Know-nothing constitu-

A STICLE XI, Section I. The object for which the sorder is organized is for the maintenance of American principles, as follows: An amendment to the naturalization laws, limiting the suffrage to persons born in this country, or of American parents; the election of American-born citizens only to official position in this country.

Before joining the American Alliance,

Before joining the American Alliance,

Governor Hayes was required to rubcribe to the following oath: I solemnly swear that I will not vote for any erson or persons for any official position in this unitry, under the laws theres, who are not

So soon as Governor Hayes received a ratification of his nomination for the Presidency by the American Alliance, he expressed his "gratification," and assured the order in his letter that at the proper time aid would be furnished the Alliance to enable it to carry out its infamous policy of robbing the foreigners of the right to vote and hold office.

The name of the American Alliance is only a substitute for that of Know-nothing. It seems from the above dispatch that it will be established by the most conclusive evidence that Governor

Hayes was connected with the Alliance, and in all probability took the oath quoted above before the order nominated him. Whether he took the oath or not is a matter of no special importance. His final acceptance of the nomination after he had received "the resolutions of the convention, together with a copy of the constitution of the c'usive of his entire sympathy with its principles and purposes. He therefore stands before the country pledged as solemply as man may be, to do what? To ostracise all foreign-born citizens, so far frage. And pray why is Governor Hayes and the members of the American Alliance who nominate i him for the Presidency, so hostile to foreigness? We had no American #1 lince during the days of the revolution

Then we welcomed foreigners to our shores; then we could hail with joyful acclamations the approach of the French fleet, bringing us aid and comfort-loaded with men to help fight our bat-army. Every State in this Union indicates how gratefully our people remember the names of Lafayette, Montgom-and the members of the American Alliance who nominated him on a platform prescribing foreigners, go to the battle-bones of these patriots and send them out of the country, before they undertake by horrid oaths to proscribe foreigners. The hostility of Governor Hayes, and the American Alliance, and the Republican party to foreigners can be easily explained. Nearly every foreigner who lands upon our shores has felt the hand of tyranny and oppression laid heavily upon him. He has learned to appreciate our government as a democratic government. When he lands here, he finds the Democratic party his friend and warring with the same tyranny and oppression which has driven him from home, and he naturally allie himself with the party opposed to proscription, Know-nothingism and the American Alliance. The enemies to Democracy have long seen and felt this, and as a consequence they are hostile to the foreigner. The pent-up venom of Governor Haves's heart burst forth by joining the dark-lantern, midnight, oath-bound organization called the American Alliance. We can scarcely conceive anything more monstrous or more hypocritical than the course of Governor Hayes, He and Read what is said of the "C. C. C." by those who have fully tested it: MESSES. ALLISON BROTHERS, Memphis, Tenn.:

Gentlemen.—I have, during the past season, had in successful operation the "C. C. C." purchased of you. I am greatly pleased with it, and consider it an absolutely indispensable machine in every gin-house. All its claims have been fully sustained, and I think you have not, in the least, exaggerated its merits. It certainly takes all the dust and dirt out of cotton, leaving it in a beautiful condition for the work of the gins. Its most apparent benefit is, of course, upon the lower grades, but I believe it will very much enhance the quality of all cotton—the first as well as the last pickings. You's truly.
